

Stone Age to Iron Age Homework Tasks

Imagine you are a time-travelling child. Write a diary entry describing life in a Stone Age village.	Create your own fossil – you could use modelling clay!	Design and make a typical Iron Age roundhouse. Be creative in the way you make this.	Write an acrostic poem based on something from the Stone Age – Iron Age
Write 5 questions that you would like to ask a caveman. What might their answers be?	Find out about 5 different types of rocks (these could include gemstones). Present your findings in an interesting way.	Produce an information leaflet about Stonehenge	Find out what animals were around in the Stone Age. Choose one to draw.
Create a leaflet for how to survive the Stone Age. How would you stay safe? What top tips would you include?	Create a timeline of important events in Stone Age to Iron Age Britain. Be creative in the way you make this.	Go outdoors and make a Stone Age shelter using natural materials. Take a photo to share your shelter!	Design a piece of jewellery from the Bronze Age.
Create a quiz with facts about the Stone Age – make sure you have the answers!	Draw a typical Stone Age dinner – think carefully about ingredients that would have been available at this time!	Find out about Mary Anning and her achievements – choose how to present your information.	FREE CHOICE! 