The Three Little Pigs An English story retold by Niz Smith and Avril Lethbridge

Cast List:

First Little Pig: The least intelligent of the three pigs and wears a pair of dungarees.

Second Little Pig: Wears a blue cap.

Third Little Pig: The cleverest of the brothers and wears a cotton shirt.

Mrs Pig: Mother of the three pigs and wears a spotty apron.

Straw Seller: Wears wellington boots carrying a bundle of straw.

Stick Seller: Jeans and t-shirt and dragging a bundle of sticks.

Brick Seller: Hard hat and hard nailed boots and pushing a wheelbarrow of bricks.

Scene 1:

Three little pigs and their mother are in their house. The little pigs are sat at the table ravenously waiting for their breakfast.

Mrs Pig: (Exhausted) Oh dear,
(Shakes her head) I can't do all of this work anymore.
(Sadly) I'm afraid you must leave home and make your own way in the world.

The pigs look sadly at each other and amble out of the door into the rest of the world.

Scene 2:

The three pigs set off down the dusty road and they meet a man carrying a bundle of straw.

First Little Pig: (Politely to the man) Excuse me!
Would you please sell me some of your straw so I can make a house?

Straw seller: (Placing his bundle of straw on the floor) Of course.
(Gives pig the straw and in return gets his money)

The first pig leaves and goes to find a place to build his house.

Scene 3:

The two pigs are walking down a countryside lane when they meet a man pulling a bundle of sticks along the ground.

Second Little Pig: (Politely to the man) Excuse me!
Would you sell me some of your sticks so I can build a house?

Stick Seller: (Letting go of the rope pulling his bundle of sticks) Of course.
(Gives the pig the sticks and gets his money back)

The second pig strolls off to find a building plot.

Third Little Pig: (Quietly to himself)
I'm going to build myself a much bigger, better, stronger house!

Scene 4:

The third pig is on a long and winding track and meets a man selling bricks.

Third Little Pig: (Politely to the man) Excuse me!
Would you sell me some of your bricks so I can build a house?

Brick seller: (Stopping pushing his wheelbarrow) Of course.
(Gives the pig the wheelbarrow and gets money back)

 TOP WORK!

The Three Little Pigs

Act 1, Scene 1

Mrs Pig and her three children are in the kitchen. Mrs Pig looks very tired and upset. She keeps looking around the kitchen, in all of the cupboards, looking for something to prepare for lunch. She looks at her children and looks disheartened and down beaten.

Character List

Mrs Pig: Is very tired her children were wearing her down.

Pig 1: The least intelligent of the three pigs.

Pig 2: he is very shy and nervous when he is around his mother.

Pig 3: the most intelligent of the three pigs. He is very clever and likes to think for himself.

Man with the cart: He provides pig 3 with the heavy bricks he needs to build his strong house.

Man with the cart: He provides pig 2 with the heavy bricks he needs to build his strong house.

Man with the cart: He provides pig 1 with the heavy bricks he needs to build his strong house.

Mrs Pig looks through the kitchen cupboards for something to eat. She is very tired and upset. She looks at her children and looks disheartened and down beaten. She looks at her children and looks disheartened and down beaten.

Mrs Pig: (distractedly) Oh dear! I can't do all this work anymore, I must leave home and make my own way in the world.

The three pigs appear shocked and sad. They look at their mother sadly. All three of them get up from the table and sadly trudged out of the kitchen door.

Mrs Pig follows the children to the door. She looks after them and looks longingly after the children through the door.

The three pigs are disappointed. They are moving slowly, not quite sure of their own minds.

A man pushing a cart filled with straw approaches the corner. Pig 1 appears to have an idea as his face lights up and he approaches the man.

Pig 1: (smartly) Excuse me, would you please sell me some of your straw so I can make a house?

The man gives Pig 1 a perplexed look but is pleased to off load the straw saving himself a long journey to market. He shakes hands with Pig 1. Pig 1 takes the straws and goes off to find a spot to build his house. (Pig 1 exits stage left)

Another man approaches the other 2 pigs with a bundle of sticks Pig 2 gets an idea, he slowly struts towards the man.

Pig 2: (nervously)Excuse me, would you please sell me some of your sticks so I can build a house?

The man gives pig 2 a confused look however he generously gives the pig the sticks. Pig 2 takes the sticks and heads towards the meadows to build his house. (Pig 2 exit stage left)

KINGFISHERS MAGNIFICENT MATHS!

Over the past couple of weeks, Mr Brown has been impressed with Phoebe and Prisma's dedication and resilience in their maths work.

Practice Sheet Mild
Finding volumes of cuboids

1. $10 \times 3 = 30$
 $30 \times 4 = 120$
Volume: 120 m^3

2. $6 \times 5 = 30$
 $30 \times 3 = 90$
Volume: 90 cm^3

3. $4 \times 4 = 16$
 $16 \times 3 = 48$
Volume: 48 cm^3

4. $8 \times 3 = 24$
 $24 \times 5 = 120$
Volume: 120 m^3

5. $6 \times 6 = 36$
 $36 \times 6 = 216$
Volume: 216 m^3

6. $7 \times 5 = 35$
 $35 \times 4 = 140$
Volume: 140 m^3

Challenge
Make a set of cuboids with a volume of 36 cm^3
HINT: Don't forget that one of the edges could be just 1cm long.
